

The law we have in Indiana is great! I can eat my supper with out getting boughtered by phone calls.

My wife loves being able to sleep without the phone ringing off the wall like before. So please don't change our laws.